Obituary

Larry Darnell James was born on June 16, 1954 to Magdalene James and the late Clarence McRay, in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina.

Larry attended the Cobber School of Myrtle Beach, SC. Larry had a passion for cooking. He pursued his career in cooking. Some time later, he earned his certification as a chef. Larry worked as a head chef for several restaurants and hotels. (Oh how I can still taste those Candied Yams.)

Before relocating to New York City, Larry met his wife, Daphine Bryant. Larry and Daphine relocated to New York, where they were married and made New York their home. Daphine Bryant James was called home to be with the Lord on June 15, 2014. Larry loved his wife more than words could express.

Larry was a very humorous person. He could tell a joke that would leave you amazed. Larry was very well liked and loved. If you didn't know Larry it would have been a privilege to have met him.

Larry leaves to cherish his memories: his mother, Magdalene James of NYC; three sisters, Gloria James of Myrtle Beach, SC, Theresa James and Sheila James of NYC; one brother, Kevin James of NYC; three aunts, Elizabeth Ledbetter, Shirley Gore of Atlanta, GA and Annette Gore of Myrtle Beach, SC; one uncle, Robert Gore of Myrtle Beach, SC; eight nieces; ten nephews; six great nieces; seven great nephews; and a host of other family and friends.

As he leaves those who will cherish his memories, he is going home to be with his father, Clarence McRay, grandmother, Sadie Gore Graham, his aunts, Bessie Ashby, Rosemary Steel and Jannette Gore, his uncles, Roger Gore, Johnny Gore and Harry Gore, his loving sister, Peggy Jean James, and a host of other family members and friends.

"Larry give all of them a hug for us, and see you when we get there."

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
