Obituary

Emma Lee Johnson (Mayers) was born on July 22, 1939. She departed this life on Sunday, November 29, 2015 at 4:20 a.m. Emma was predeceased by her parents, Willie and Florence Johnson, sisters, Ruby Johnson and Alice Hankins and brothers, Ricky Johnson, Troy Johnson and Willie Johnson, Jr.

She was a resident of Edison, NJ for over seventy years and was educated in the Edison Public School System. On October 17, 1959, Emma married the late Jacob Edward Mayers and to this union five children were born; she was a very devoted Mother, Grandmother, Mother-in-Law, Sister, Aunt, Cousin, and Friend. Emma was best known for being selfless; she always gave encouragement and assistance to anyone who needed it.

Emma became one of Jehovah's Witnesses in 1989; she took her work in ministry very seriously, so seriously that when she fell ill later in life and spent time in the hospital she renamed it her "territory". She was such a positive light; she would go from room to room giving all praise to Jehovah and inspiring patients to move forward even in the midst of the storm. She would also place magazines with those patients and talk about the importance of reading the Bible.

For thirty-four years, Emma worked at Revlon as a Lipstick Inspector. She was also a bus aide and lunch aide upon retiring in 1989. She devoted her time in field service spreading the good news of the Kingdom and caring for her grandchildren whom she loved dearly. She also took care of children in the community and treated them as her own.

Cherishing her memory are: her two sons, Dwayne Edward Mayers of Sayreville, NJ and Anthony Mayers of North Brunswick, NJ; three daughters, Lori Renee Mayers, Ayesha Patrick and La'Keisha Ciprian of Edison, NJ; a special nephew, Timothy Bradley of Edison, NJ; two sisters, Doris Bradley of Edison, NJ and Delores Hawkins of Rahway, NJ; one son-in-law, Kenneth Patrick, Sr., one daughter-in-law, Dajuana Rowe-Mayers; special family friend, Carlos Ciprian; eight grandchildren, Jahmal Marcel Mayers, Mecca Imani Mayers, Yaasmeen Zaynah Smith, Trinitee Renee Mayers, Kenneth James Patrick, Jr., Aiyana Simone Ciprian, Malcom Idris Mayers and Ava Lanae Patrick; she also leaves behind a host of close relatives and friends. She will be deeply missed by all who loved her.
