Obituary

Panthea Pettaway-Hines was born on January 8, 1952 in Warrenton, North Carolina, the youngest to the late James and Willie.

Pethea began her early education at the age of 5 at Nutbush Elementary School from grades 1-8. After graduating 8th grade, she attended Vance County High School where she received her high school diploma on June 6, 1970. Upon graduation, she left North Carolina and moved to New Jersey. Arriving in New Jersey, she began working at Barkers Engineering Co. in Kenilworth, NJ where she was employed for several years. It was there where she met her soon to be husband, Leo Hines. Out of their union seven children were created.

Her love for the Lord led her to St. James AME where she attended for many years.

Panthea received her degree in early childhood education from Essex County College to Newark, NJ. In 1993, she became employed of Newark Day Care as a Teacher's Aide where she build lifelong friendships and remained employed until the dime of her untimely passing December 21, 2015.

God Called Your Name So Softly

God called your name so softly,
that only you could hear
And no one heard the footsteps
Of angels drawing near.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
but you did not go alone,
For part of us went with you,
the day God called you home.
You're always close beside us, in everything we do,
You were our greatest treasure,
God's gift to us was you.
We will always remember that way you looked,
the way you talked and smiled,
The little things you said and did
to make our lives worthwhile.
Each time we look at your picture,
you seem to smile and say,
Don't be sad but courage take
and love each other for my sake.
Just a prayer from the family to you,
just a memory fond and true,
In our hearts you will stay forever

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
