Obituary

Jewel Wendy Mullgrav wife of the late Claude Mullgrav was received into her heavenly mother's hands on March 23, 1960 at the Metropolitan Hospital in Manhattan, New York. She was the daughter of the late Herbert Edmondson and Ethel Edmondson. Jewel was the second child of eight children.

Jewel attended Andrew Jackson High School in Queens, New York where she was part of the Glee Club. This made her very popular. Jewel was quiet a character, she would show up late just to make a grand entrance.

Growing up, Jewel was full of life. Even at a young age, she showed signs of being a leader, provider, and a protector. Also, she was strong willed and a determined individual with the beauty to go along with it. Jewel had such a lovely skin tone, light brown eyes, dimples that made your heart melt and a smile that gave you butterflies. It was just impossible to walk pass her without admiring her beauty. Not only was her beauty shining bright on the outside, her heart was just as amazing. Jewel was also known for her effortless elegance. She had a classic sense of style dressing to perfection for every occasion, wearing her signature red lipstick. Jewel was universally genuine and generous and always made people feel welcomed.

She worked in the hotel industry for thirty years. She was known for her work ethics, professionalism, and always willing to go the extra mile. As result, she received several opportunities for advancement.

On her free time, she enjoyed pampering herself, reading, television, music, singing, working, shopping, card playing and most of all spending time with her loving family. Her daughter Shahnifah was her best friend and number one fan. Her son Yaqeen was her number one protector.

On December 22nd, 2015 at the Roosevelt Hospital, in Manhattan, New York, Jewel Wendy Mullgrav entered into rest at the age of 55. Jewel Mullgrav leaves to cherish her memories, her son, Yaqeen Mullgrav and her daughter, Shahnifah Vanterpool (Ariel). Six wonderful, amazing grandchildren whom she loved dearly, Nazayah, Brianna, Shabbethai, Darekeyah, Adahlyah, and Eleyah. Along with two goddaughters Peyton and Genesis. She is also survived by her mother, Ethel Edmondson. Sisters; Lillie, Donna, Teri, Mina and Crystal, her brothers Herbert (Paul), Christopher (Pop). Her aunts Mary, Dora, Alice (Penny), Pamela, Ann, Audrey and her uncle Peter. She will be truly missed by all including aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, neighbors, coworkers and friends. She lived up to her name, she was in fact a "Jewel" and always will be in our hearts.

The family has chosen Unity Funeral Chapels, Inc. located at 2352 8th Avenue to handle the funeral arrangements of The Wonderful Mrs. Jewel Wendy Mullgrav.

Interment

Christ Church Cemetery South Amboy, New Jersey

*GOD, grant me the Serenity
to accept the things I cannot change, Courage to change the things I can,
and the Wisdom to know the difference.*

Living one day at a time;

Enjoying one moment at a time;

Accepting hardship as the pathway to peace.

*Taking, as He did, this sinful world as it is,
not as I would have it.*

*Trusting that He will make all things right
if I surrender to His Will;*

*That I may be reasonably happy in this life,
and supremely happy with Him forever in the next.*

Amen

Serenity Prayer
