Reflections of Life

Henry Wimberly was born September 9, 1933 in Paterson, NJ to the late Claude and Edna (Thomas) Wimberly.

Henry attended P.S. #6, graduated from Eastside High School and Ramapo College. In 1972, Henry was employed by the city of Paterson as a Probation Officer with no car, he also worked for Paterson Task Force and the Post Office.

From the mouth of his cousin, Gilbert Benson, Henry and his brothers and cousins hung out at the Jazz Clubs in NYC. He loved sports, track meets and basketball. He was the youngest but talked the most.

Henry was preceded in death by his brothers, Benny, Elbert (Sonny) and sisters, Claudia Hemphill and Louise Williams.

He leaves to cherish fond memories: one daughter, Robin Fowler; two sons, Rodney and Claude Wimberly; and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.
