Obituary

Linda Davis, born June 16, 1962 to Cynthia Mabry and the late Clarence Davis. She was raised in Daytona Beach, FL until she was seven. Moving to NYC with her mother and two siblings, she was now a New Yorker. While in New York, Linda had become the oldest of six children, Caroline, Jessie, Calvin, Thalma, and Sean.

She raised four children while working HHA. She was independent, loving, and a wrestling fan. Not sure if she planned it to be our family time, but it was. Not always strict, but not always a push over. She did the best she could with every situation. She will be remembered as a loving daughter, sister, aunt, and MOTHER.

She leaves behind to cherish: her Mother: Cynthia Mabry; Siblings: Carloine Black, Thalma Mabry, Jessie Davis, Calvin Mabry and Sean Davis; Children: Michael McDonald, Shanefia Callwood, Nachele and Shanequa Davis; Grandchildren: Jaden and Zaniya Howell, Xzaviar McDonald and Alex Lopaz.

She also leaves behind a dozens of nieces and nephews who she loved deeply.

Footprints

One night a woman had a dream. She dreamed she was walking along the beach with the LORD. Across the sky flashed scenes from her life. For each scene, she noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonged to her, and the other to the LORD. When the last scene of her life flashed before her, she looked back at the footprints in the sand. She noticed that many times along the path of her life there was only one set of footprints. She also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in her life. This really bothered her and she questioned the LORD about it. "LORD, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me." The LORD replied, "My precious, precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

Preceded her in death her father, Clarence Davis.
