Eulogy

Claudia Olivia Byfield, daughter, sister, friend and loving Angel came into this world on September 1, 1962 to Ruth Thompson and Bonnie Byfield. Claudia was raised by her mother and stepfather, Cecil Thompson since she was a year old.

As a child, Claudia loved to play in the front yard with the other children. As a teen, she attended the Brooklyn, NY School System, always loving to work with people.

The oldest of six children, Claudia was a great person who was always tending to and loving every child as if they were her own. As a young adult, she gave her existence to her Lord and Savior. Her faith never wavering through all her adversities and tests.

Claudia loved making people look beautiful. Not only was this her trade, but to some it was considered her art. As a stylist, she made her friends and family look their very best at every event.

Claudia loved to smile, her weakness was African Dramas. She would watch them for hours with her sisters. She also loved to cook and took great joy in feeding her family.

At fifty-three, Claudia was strong and diligent to her faith, love and relationship with the Lord. She was loved by all she touched and was truly an Angel in her own right. Claudia prayed for her family and friends more than she prayed for herself.

Rejoice and thank him that we were able to witness this angel in Life.

Claudia leaves behind to cherish her memories, two wonderful parents, Ruth and Cecil; brothers and sisters, Cecil Jr., Paul, Trudy, Tamisha and Sheba and a host of extended family members and friends that will never forget her.
