Reflections of Life

Ronnell Carter was born to the proud parents of Milton Walters and Jewel Carter on April 15, 1977 in the Bronx, New York. God saw fit to pick His beautiful rose for His heavenly garden on February 25, 2016.

Ronnell graduated from Clinton High School in the Bronx, New York in 1994. While in High School, he played the position of forward guard in basketball. He also played for PAL. He was an avid lover of basketball and football. He went on to pursue his degree at SUNY Delhi College.

Ronnell loved his job and took pride in his work. He was a strong independent, loving and honest person. He was a good man and a hard worker who was very dedicated to his family.

Ronnell leaves to mourn his death: two beautiful children; Shania and Ronnell Carter, Jr., mother; Jewel Carter, father; Milton Walters, sisters; Novell, Robin and Keisha, brothers; Shannon, Anthony, Milton, Jr., and Christopher; uncles, aunts, cousins, half sisters and brothers, a host of devoted friends who played special parts in his life, other relatives and close friends.

Lovingly Submitted,

The Family

DADDY

Daddy you were the first man I loved and will always love.

Daddy you were a strong man who never needed anyone.

Daddy you always made me smile even if I was mad at you.

Daddy you're my lock and key because you always held me down.

Daddy, when you cried, I cried.

We had a bond so strong,

Daddy you gave me a brother on August 28, 2014 you were so happy.

Daddy we have so many memories I will never forget you, I promise.

Daddy I promise to succeed to make you happy and proud of me.

Daddy even if you didn't have it you made it happen just to keep me smiling.

Daddy thank you for being in my life and for never giving up on me.

Daddy you are my King.

I love you Daddy!!!

Love,

Mush

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil:

For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever.

Amen.

Acknowledgement

The family wishes to express their deepest appreciation and sincere thanks for all acts of kindness shown to them in their time of sorrow.
