Reflections of Life

Yvette Littlejohn was born on February 27, 1954 in Paterson, NJ to Helen (Corley) Littlejohn and the late William Littlejohn. She was the second oldest of seven children.

Yvette was educated in the Paterson School system and graduated from Eastside High School. She also attended Rutgers University. Yvette worked in the customer service, data entry and billing fields as well as holding a variety of different job descriptions.

Yvette accepted Christ as her personal savior. She joined and was baptized at New Shiloh Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. Louis Norris.

Yvette was a woman who enjoyed reading, watching court TV shows, ID Channel and anything dealing with solving a mystery or murder. She loved everyone, would help anyone who was homeless, hungry or in need; that was Poopie she had a "heart of Gold". Yvette loved to party, dance and laugh. She would tell you what you needed to hear whether you wanted to listen or not. You could never get a word in, however she was always available when you needed her.

On Sunday, February 28, 2016, Yvette peacefully passed away and went home to her father, brother, sister, nephew and grandchildren to dwell in the house of the Lord.

She was preceded in death by her paternal grandfather Bishop Robert Littlejohn, paternal grandmother, Annie Littlejohn, father, William Littlejohn, sister, Carolyn, brother, Robert (Pop), nephew, Kenneth Littlejohn, granddaughter, Naya James and grandson, Towan Littlejohn.

Yvette leaves to cherish precious memories: her loving mother, Helen (Corley) Littlejohn of Paterson, NJ; daughters, Bevale Littlejohn of Paterson, NJ and Tanique James-Charles of Columbia, SC; son, Thomas Littlejohn of Paterson, NJ; siblings, Yvonne Littlejohn-Liverpool of Paterson, NJ, Valencia and Marcelle and Walter Littlejohn of Paterson, NJ; eight grandchildren, DuSean, Dana (Mr. Big Stuff), Tanaya (Gramps), Dahmeer (Pumpkin) Littlejohn, Naphish and Nasiyr (Dad) James, Carmelo Hynes (Angel) and Natalya Charles (Tootie); godson, Tiwan Gatling; five great grandchildren, Yazavar, Yamira, Yanai, Zymeik Goodwin and Prince Littlejohn; loving ex-husband, Alfred James and son-in-law, Nathaniel Charles; three devoted and loving friends, Edna (Pinky) Fraiser, Morris (Foots) Dicker and Alyssa Armstrong; also a loving uncle, Fred and Faye Littlejohn; and a host of aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and neighbors.

I Used To Wonder

I used to wonder why it rained,
But flowers have to grow,
And why in the winter when trees bare, flowers have to go.
I learned how to keep myself from missing them
For I knew they'd be back in the Spring,
and all Summer long I could play in the garden,
And embrace the warmth they would bring.
But then in the Fall I'd prepare my good-byes
As Winter was sitting in,
and long for the days of Spring to return,
So I could see my flowers again
