Reflections of Life

Emma Lee Lewis was born in North Augusta, S.C. on February 12, 1919 to the late Sam and Josephine James.

She was educated in the Aiken County School System, and was a former member of the Summer Hill Baptist Church. In 1942, she relocated to New Jersey. She was employed by Universal Electric Company for thirty years before retiring. She was married to the late John Lewis.

Emma departed this life on February 27, 2016 in Wayne, NJ, and has now followed her late husband, John Lewis; two sisters, Annie L. Scott and Maud Glasco; three brothers, Sam, Grandison, and Joseph James; and devoted friend, Inez Shepard.

She leaves to cherish precious memories: her nieces, Willie B. Clemonts of Scranton, PA, Angenetta Middleton of Virginia, and Winona Maney of Irvington, NJ; her nephews, Sam James, Jr. of Rahway, NJ and Grandison James, Jr. of Union, NJ; her first cousin-in-law, Danny Lewis of Paterson, NJ; five great nieces; five great nephews; two great-great nieces; two great-great nephews and two devoted friends, Lula Bell Mack and Bill Frierson.
