Obituary

Edward William Paschal was born June 30, 1948 to Phyllis White and Ernest Paschal Sr. "Eddie," as he was affectionately known to most people, graduated from Clark High School in 1966. He worked in the restaurant industry in various capacities for the majority of his adult life.

Eddie had many significant events to occur in his life. His son Raymond Gaines was born on September 10, 1967. The following year, in 1968, he met Sandra Flood. They were soon married and welcomed a daughter, Shevaun, in February of 1970. Edward later relocated to Atlanta, Georgia where he met and married his second wife Marian George and welcomed her children into his family.

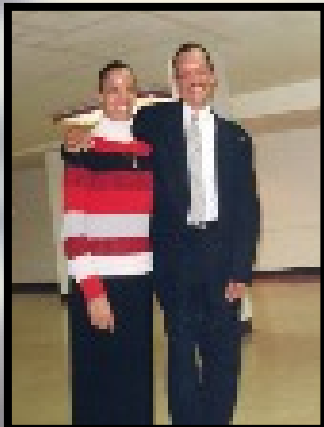

Eddie loved to have fun. He could always be caught singing along to his favorite tunes like Billy Joel's "Just The Way You Are," or doing his best rendition of Sugar Hill Gang's "Rappers Delight" with his grandchildren. He was an avid viewer of science fiction and western movies. He also loved to watch sports, with baseball and football being his favorites. He could often be found watching Bizarre Foods on the travel channel, but most of all he loved to laugh at the jokes on his favorite show of all time, "Seinfeld."

Edward was predeceased by both of his parents, his older sister Diane Forrest, his twin brother Ernest Paschal Jr., and his younger sister Michelle Paschal. He leaves behind to cherish his memory his daughter, Shevaun Paschal Brown and her husband Gerald Brown, his son Raymond Gaines, three stepchildren: Doyle, Felesia and Darrington Cunningham and their families, six grandchildren: Britanni, Brianna, Joshua, Emani, Tahlia and Raymond, three great-grandchildren Brielle, Jalil and Aiden, two aunts, Peggy and Carol White, two uncles Richard and Walter White, and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.

Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.

For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.

It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.

Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
