Life Reflections

Jesus said, "Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you. I will come again and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also."
- JOHN 14:1-3

Shawn McClary was the daughter of the late Malfina McClary and Sam Singleton. Shawn was born on February 13, 1972 in New York Presbyterian Hospital. Shawn was raised in New York City where she received her education in the public school system.

Shawn, affectionately known as "Juicy", loved life and no matter what she was going through she always had that big smile on her face. Everyday was a blessing to her. Shawn was a fighter and that strength came from the love of her kids, family and friends. She was a fun, outgoing person and always spoke her mind. Juicy was selfless and cared for anyone and everyone she knew. She was the oldest of ten and was a caring mother that lived for her children, but she wasn't just a mother to her kids; she played the motherly role for her siblings, nieces, nephews and her friends' kids. Whenever needed, night or day, she was there. Juicy had many interest especially her love for music; she had a passion for song writing, singing helped her relax and Janet Jackson was her ideal. Aside from her appreciation of music, she savored family gatherings such as dinners in the park, birthday parties, block parties and more.

On Monday, March 7th, 2016 at Montefiore-Albert Einstein Hospital, she departed this life after a year long fight. She tried to stay for the love of her children, but her mother called her home to suffer no more. Shawn leaves to cherish her memory: her children, Steafon and Steafonie; step-father, Jerome Williams; four sisters, Tarsha, Lakisha, Ethel and Symone; six brothers, Darrell, Jerome, Rodney, Timothy, Christopher and Edwin; two aunts, Joanne and Terri; two uncles, Jeffrey and Tyrone; two great grandaunts, Abby and Janie Lee; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Sleep on, beloved, sleep and take thy rest; lay down thy head upon thy savior's breast; we love thee well, but Jesus loves thee best.

Heaven Has Gained An Angel

As you complete this temporary journey you have embraced our hearts Yes we mourn but realize this is where your life truly starts your smile sparkled greater than silver and gold We're willing to let go of your hand so that God can grab hold . We will always love you as you have continued to love us all we ask now is that you look down while you are above us we are grateful that God put us in the midst of your presence we breathe with your memory and walk with your essence. The Lord is our Shepherd He tends to us as sheep and mends the hearts that are weak until one day we can shake his hand and sit at his feet we don't think of you as a loss to our family that remains We cherish you as a beautiful angel that heaven has gained!

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair
Perhaps you sent a funeral spray, if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much whatever the part.
The McClary's, Holmes and Williams wishes to extend their sincere thanks and appreciation to each and everyone.
