Obituary

James Edward George, Jr., “Jimmy” was born to his mother, Mrs. Helen Virginia George of Martinsville, Virginia and to his late father, Mr. James Edward George, Sr. of Savannah, Georgia on March 23, 1961 at Harlem Hospital, New York, New York.

Jimmy was raised in the Roman Catholic faith and was a member of The St. Charles Borromeo Church. He was baptized on July 9, 1967, and received The Holy Sacrament of Confirmation on May 16, 1975. He also attended St. Charles Borromeo School and graduated June 1975. From there, he attended All Hallows High School Bronx, NY, and graduated June 1979. While attending All Hallows, Jimmy received The Gael Award for Fulfilling The Challenge of The School’s Highest Ideas: Pro Fide Et Patria. He also attended two years at Johnson C. Smith University in Charlotte, NC. While there, he played football in the position of linebacker.

Jimmy loved watching the movies, “Warriors”, The Walking Dead, WWE Wrestling, Football, Basketball, Baseball, and Country Westerns. Some of his favorite pastimes were working on crossword puzzles, reading and his greatest pastime was playing Spades. Jimmy was a sweet, soft-spoken, mild mannered person, but still was not afraid to speak his mind.

Repast for Family and close Friends

Missing You Always

You never said I'm leaving
You never said Goodbye.
You were gone before we knew it
And only God knows why.
In life I loved you dearly
In death I love you still.
In my heart I hold a place
That only you can fill.
It broke my heart to lose you
But you didn't go alone.
A part of me went with you
The day God took you home.

Acknowledgement

The family acknowledges with deep appreciation all acts of kindness extended to them during this bereavement hour. May God bless you for all your thoughtfulness and concern.
