Obituary

Joseph L. Wilkerson, was born to Lucille Bell Riddle and step father, Cortney Riddle.

Joseph at the age of five, moved with his family to Montclair, New Jersey in 1945. Joseph was educated through the Montclair Public School system until the eleventh grade. He later went to Essex County College to get his high school diploma.

Joseph was a truck driver for Coke a Cola then went into security where he retired as security for Newark Board of Education.

Joseph was a very kind hearted and fair man. Most people called him “Pop”. He loved to fish and relax, this was a great day for him.
