Obituary

Patient, kind, and extraordinarily generous, Cordova Frazier, was born to the late Harvey and Maggie Phillips on October 21, 1921 in Hockley, Virginia where, at the age of nine, she was baptized at the First Baptist Church.

After relocating to New Jersey several years later, Cordova continued to be active with her home church, as a member of the Friendship Club of New Jersey. For several years she was a member of Mount Olive Baptist Church in East Orange, New Jersey, subsequently becoming a founding member of New Hope Baptist Church, also in East Orange, where she served many years on the choir and the Ways and Means Committee.

For more than thirty years, Cordova worked at American Undergarments as a seamstress and upon retirement, she became a self-employed child care provider for several years.

On January 10, 1946, Cordova married the late Harrison Frazier.

She is survived by: two sons, Harry and Eric; one daughter-in-law, Elaine Frazier; two grandsons, Omari Frazier and Terrence Austin; two granddaughters, Iyana Richardson and Eris Frazier; two great-granddaughters, Briyana Richardson and Chloe Frazier; one great-grandson, Tre'shad Austin; one sister, Olivia Jackson; and a multitude of relatives and friends.

Cordova entered her eternal rest on May 9, 2016, and her lovingly gracious spirit will be missed by all whose lives she touched.
