Obituary

Paul A. Wigfall, Jr., the son of the late Paul A. Wigfall, Sr. and the late Ruth Gourdine Wigfall was born September 10, 1940 in Moncks Corner, SC. He entered into eternal rest on May 7, 2016 in Brooklyn, NY.

Paul grew up in Santee, South Carolina and graduated from Roberts High School in Holly Hill, SC. He moved to New York City where he met and married Merian L. (Diane) Kennedy. To this union Shawna was born.

Paul loved cars and he worked on them until he retired due to his illness.

Paul leaves to cherish his memory and mourn his passing: wife, Merian L. (Diane) Wigfall; two daughters, Shawna Wigfall of Brooklyn, NY and Patricia Wigfall of Philadelphia, PA; five grandchildren, Tyree, Shanequa, Deyshaun, Jason and Brandon Crushoion; four great-grandchildren, Michael, Kameron, Kayla and Kayden. He also leaves to cherish his memory, his brother, Jacob Wigfall of Santee, SC; two sisters, Lillian of Michigan and Ruby of Bronx; two brothers-in-law, David Holman and Charles Hunter; one son-in-law, Craig Adkins. Paul loved his family.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*
