Obituary

Magelind Davis affectionately known as “Maga, Mega or Auntie Mommy” was born on July 11, 1965 to the late Malachi Davis Sr. and Amelia Davis in Harlem, New York.

Maga grew up in Harlem, NY and later resided in the Highbridge section of the Bronx. She graduated from Bronx Regional High School and later received her cosmetology license and obtained a certificate in Early Childhood Education.

Maga wore many hats in a variety of occupations over the years. She was a telephone technician at Verizon, Hair Stylist, Nursing Home Administrator, poll inspector for voter registration and the community “mom” to all the neighborhood youth as an active participant in the Praise and Pride organization. She also lent her services to the Hurricane Sandy cleanup efforts.

She was a faithful member of Friendly Baptist Church in the Bronx and later became a member at Greater Highway Deliverance Temple in Harlem.

Maga was an avid card player, who loved to roller skate, take trips to Atlantic City, coordinate barbeques, take pictures, play Words with Friends, loved fashion, going to plays and enjoying life with her family.

Maga was predeceased by her twin brother, Malachi, Jr. and sister, Mary Jackson.

Maga is survived by: her mother, Amelia Davis; aunt, Leona McKenzie; uncle, Tom Hickson; loving partner of twenty years, Glenn McKoy (aka Kojack); (step-daughter, Glenise McKoy); siblings, Minnie Lee Brewer (Al), Helen, Beverly, Felipe (Sharon), Essie and Karen; godmother, Yvonne White; godsisters, Nykema White and Mary Brown; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

I'm Free

Do not grieve for me because now I Am Free. I'm just following the path God laid for me. I took God's hand when I heard the call and I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day; to laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way. Now if my parting has left a void, then you should fill it with fond memories and joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss and yes these things I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I will be your sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full and I've savored much with good friends, good times and a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seems all too brief but don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your heart and share with me because God wanted me now and he set me free.

Acknowledgement

The family acknowledges with deep appreciation all acts of kindness extended to them during this bereavement hour. May God bless you for all your thoughtfulness and concern.
