Obituary

Elsie Berry, born on May 30, 1926 as Elsie Bernice Butler; one of two daughters to Ethel and William Butler, topped off with sister, Inez Venable.

Elsie is survived by: four children, Adrienne M. Berry Jones, Michael Berry, Denise E. Shaw and Martin Berry; seven grandchildren; four great grandchildren; and a host of nieces and nephews.

Elsie Berry was a vibrant and friendly woman, who loved song and dance. Elsie and her late husband Ronald R. Berry practiced hours for Beauville, and won many dance contests.

Chumsy, as she was affectionately known by her family, was a thoughtful and kind person, who was always running errands, helping others, with a contagious laugh. She leaves behind a legacy of strength and endurance for many women to follow.

We celebrate her coming home to the Father, where there is everlasting peace and joy.

Mommy enjoy the Good Life!

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call*

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way,

I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!
