Obituary

Wayne Patrick Harrigan, the youngest of three boys, was born in Harlem, New York to Ellean Victoria and Calroy Harrigan and grew up in the lower eastside of New York City.

He attended the Borough of Manhattan College and later joined the U.S. Navy where he served on the USS Carl Vinson CVN-70 Super Carrier. He was a U.S. Navy Seaman from January 1981 to January 1987 and was released from active duty with an honorable discharge.

His duties to his country did not end there. He has been working at the Montrose VA Hospital in Hudson Valley, New York for the past fifteen years still providing service to our U.S. Veterans.

Wayne is best remembered for his infectious smile, mild-manner demeanor, and willingness to always lend a hand; never fearless, never afraid. He Was Born Of The Spirit, In The Will Of The Lord.

Wayne leaves to cherish his memory: daughter, Camryn Harrigan; mother, Ellean Harrigan; brothers, Vincent Harrigan and Calroy Harrigan; aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Romans 5:1-4

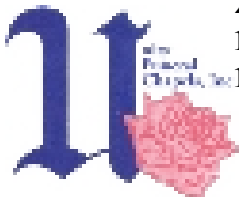

Therefore, having been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Through whom also we have access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God. And not only that, but we also glory in tribulations, knowing that tribulation produces perseverance; and perseverance, character; and character, hope.
