Reflections of Life

*"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course,
I have kept the faith" Timothy 4:7*

Florraine Nobles, beloved daughter of the late Mrs. Carrie Bell and Johnson Singleton and Mr. Johnny Singleton was born on August 24, 1955 in the Bronx, New York. She departed this earthly life on Wednesday, July 13, 2016 in her home after enduring a lengthy illness.

Florraine was educated in the Bronx, New York and studied at the college of New Rochelle. Florraine married Wilbert Nobles, Jr. and from that union were Nicole Nobles and Wilbert Nobles, III. She was a faithful servant of the Lord; a powerful and prayerful woman whose reverence for life was as grand as her love for family and friends. She was a diligent worker and compassionate friend who had a passion for blues and gospel music and possessed a sense of humor that left anyone within earshot roaring with life and laughter.

Florraine possessed a very special and anointed soul and was anointed with the power of forgiveness. She was a loving and forgiving woman who did the best she could with what she knew. She was a strong and solid woman, a woman of substance who would endure a life that consisted of challenges, fears, regret and victory! "Thank You Jesus."

She would go on to become a woman with an incurable illness, however in spite of the challenges of dealing with on-going health issues, when asked "how are you doing?", she would proclaim with confidence, that she was blessed. No matter the circumstance, Florraine always encouraged others to keep their faith and led them out of their own travesties.

Florraine leaves to cherish and honor her memory, husband Wilbert Nobles, Jr.; daughter Nicole (Gregory); son Wilbert Nobles, III (Toshia); sister Johnnie Mae Chaplin; sister from another mother Callie Mae; two grandchildren, Jamila Nobles, and Kimora Carr; two nieces Tanya and Rhonda; one great-nephew Durell and a host of loving cousins and special friends.

Good job Moses! Now rest in the Lords light.

To My Loved Ones

Don't worry about me, I am finally at rest!
No more pain, no more sorrow,
Just preparing for the new and the best.
I'm dressed in the right attire,
Armed with my Bible and praise;
He came for me last Wednesday and I was ready for my heavenly raise.
I've lived a full life, my family and friends I adore.
How sweet it was to be loved by you
And know I loved you more!
At my home going service today,
Get ready to laugh and remember all the times
I had something funny to say
Now that I am free and reunited with family
Rejoice! I am on the other side of the mountain.
Remember me and my life, full of fun love
Prayer and joy
Accept The Lord as your Savior and
He will love you for sure!
Until We Meet Again....and Just Remember....
"How Sweet It Is To Be Loved By You"

Acknowledgement

To all our family and friends that we know and love, and to all that came to us in our time of need, we thank you all for your kindness and words of expression.
