Reflections of Life

Sheila M. Fox was born in Hackensack, NJ on September 13, 1948 to the late James Poole and Gladys Poole, and later settled in Oak Grove, Kentucky.

We are gathered here today in the memory of our Mother, Sheila M. Fox, so that together we may acknowledge and share both our joy in the gift that her life was to us, and the pain that her passing brings. In sharing the joy and the pain together today, may we reduce the pain, and remember more clearly the joy.

It is hard to say good-bye, we wish that we had more time, and perhaps that we had more time to spend together. We wish that so much of her time had not been lost to her illness, and that things could have been different for all of us. Though we know that she is at peace, and her struggle has come to an end, there is pain and sadness. Even though she is gone, she has left a legacy of her Love and perseverance.

She was preceded in death by her parents, James and Gladys Poole.

She leaves to cherish precious memories her sons James Fox of Oak Grove, KY, and Sean Fox of Bronx, NY; one sister, Debra Poole; one brother, Anthony Poole; and a host of other relatives, friends and neighbors.

The ways she touched our lives will remain in our hearts. I ask you to keep those memories alive by sharing them with me, and another.

One of the most important things, she was very stylish and fabulous, whether going to the supermarket, her doctor's appointment, not one thing was out of place.. You will be sadly missed.

We will always LOVE YOU!
