Obituary

Alberta Perry, affectionately known as "Bert" to her family and friends was born to the late Scott and Florence Chancellor on March 15, 1921 in Anderson, South Carolina.

Alberta migrated up north to New York City in 1946, where she gained employment as a private household worker and cook for two families before eventually settling into her job as an office maintenance worker from which she retired in 1990.

She met her future husband, Willie S. Perry who preceded her in death after 55 years of marriage. They were married in 1950 and that union produced five children who have survived her, Barbara A. Isles, Albert S. Perry, Harold S. Perry, Arlene Perry and Curtis L. Perry. She is also survived by a grandson, Nabate S. Isles, granddaughter, Viangela Liles, older sister, Louise Clardy, niece, Roma Jean Butler, daughter-in-law, Gloria Taylor-Perry and also three great grandchildren, two great-great grandchildren and numerous nieces, nephews and cousins as well as a host of caring friends and neighbors.

Alberta was a loving mother to not only her children, but to so many of the neighborhood children. She would constantly talk to them, always encouraging them to become better and to take care of themselves. We are so grateful we got to share her with so many and she will continue to look down upon us and take care of us. It's just who she was or we will say IS because her spirit will continue to live in each of us who were blessed enough to have her in our lives.

WE LOVE YOU MOMMY FOREVER!

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

*My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
