Obituary

Lorelle Smith was born on December 31, 1962 in Brooklyn Hospital, Brooklyn, New York. She was the last of ten children born to the late Bleaker Mendinghall and James Smith.

She attended Maxwell High School where she completed her education. She was employed by Careful Bus Company and Atlantic Express, where she assisted the children for the Board of Education.

In September 2011, she met the love of her life, Arnold Watson on her way to work. They dated for five and a half years and became engaged on May 6, 2016. They had big plans for their future, but GOD'S plans were bigger and Lorelle had to make a detour for a life with Jesus Christ.

Lorelle loved working on computers in playing games. She was a loving aunt to her nieces and nephews. She was loved by so many.

Lorelle was preceded in death by her brother, Charles Mendinghall, her sisters, Mary Green and Margery Smith Duke. She leaves to mourn her death: her brother, Emmanuel Smith; her sisters, Grace Mendinghall, Ethel Smith, Katie Smith, Sylvia Smith and Helena Hammond; and daughter/niece, Charise Smith; her granddaughter/grandniece, Lavette McMillion; as well as a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.

Heaven Has Gained An Angel

As you complete this temporary journey you have embraced our hearts Yes we mourn but realize this is where your life truly starts your smile sparkled greater than silver and gold We're willing to let go of your hand so that God can grab hold . We will always love you as you have continued to love us all we ask now is that you look down while you are above us we are grateful that God put us in the midst of your presence we breathe with your memory and walk with your essence. The Lord is our Shepherd He tends to us as sheep and mends the hearts that are weak until one day we can shake his hand and sit at his feet we don't think of you as a loss to our family that remains We cherish you as a beautiful angel that heaven has gained!
