Obituary

Nellie B. Hubbard was born on March 29, 1923 in Montclair, NJ to the late Henry Q. and Lillian M. Brown.

Nellie was educated in the Montclair School District graduating from Montclair High School. She continued her education graduating from Upsala College in East Orange, NJ. She later married Warren E. Hubbard and from this union came one son, Keith and one daughter, Robin.

Among her jobs were educating children of migrant workers, director of a YWCA and sales associate at Bambergers. After working many years, Nellie was able to fully enjoy many years of retirement.

Activities she enjoyed included volunteering at the Red Cross, Cerebral Palsy Center, the Neighborhood Center and wherever she was needed. She was a longtime member of the L. Club, YWCA and the NAACP.

Nellie was a member of Trinity United Presbyterian Church for fifty-four years serving as an Elder for fifty years. She served on a number of committees in Trinity as well as Presbytery.

Although Nellie did not want to be remembered for any specific works she did, it is impossible to speak about her life without naming some. These included work in the Ecumenical Prison Ministry, Presbyterian Women, Church Women United, Presbytery Administration Committee, Clerk of Session, Superintendent of Sunday School, Teacher, Moderator of trip Committee, Historical Committee, Anniversary Committees, Annual Christmas Program and dinner for the Essex County Hospital Center Patients and any other opportunity to serve. She wanted to be remembered as a servant for the Lord.

Nellie made many friends within the church and outside as well. She was known for her baking, crocheting and her love of travel. She loved being part of the crafters and looked forward to the annual trips to various parts of the county with the travelers.

Nellie was preceded in death by her parents, Henry and Lillian Brown, siblings, Hudson Brown, Arcelia Garnet, Willie Ruth Wilson, Lillian (Lill) Brown, Louise Jeter, William (Bud) Brown and Harvey Brown.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her son, Keith Hubbard; daughter, Robin Hamilton; niece, Barbara Galloway; nephew, Wayne Jeter (Debbie); great nieces, Carol Hurley and Teresa Walker (Darwin); great nephew, Tyler Jeter; and a host of other relatives and friends.

The precious jewels of laughter
The tender love and care.
