Reverend Darren Thompson, Pastor/Eulogist

Obsequies

Jerry Thompson was born August 16, 1939 in Pineville, South Carolina to the late Allen and Annie Thompson. He was one of thirteen blessed to this union.

Jerry migrated to Jersey City, NJ at an early age. Anyone that knew Jerry, knew that he was very independent.

Jerry, the Chief of the Cherokee, aka Keyno had an infectious smile, a smile that would widen his chinky eyes. He was the life of any party.

Jerry loved life, he greatly appreciated life and he lived it to the fullest. He was always fun and had a fun and loving spirit. He will be greatly missed.

Jerry will live in the hearts and minds of those he loved and those that loved him.

He was predeceased by his parents, daughter, Linda Waldo and siblings, Zacker Thompson, Johnny Thompson, Ezekiel Thompson, Sally Thompson and Florence Crawford.

He leaves to cherish precious memories: his children, Venus Mitchell, Johnny Mitchell, Jerry Thompson, David Thompson, Justine Thompson, Lorenzo Thompson, Tanya Mitchell and Brenton Smith; siblings, Ruth Richardson, Ernest Thompson, Allen Thompson, Jr., James Thompson, Mary Williams, Joe Lewis Thompson and Alice Thompson; grandchildren, great grandchildren; special niece, Betty Mazyck; and a host of other relatives and friends.

A Spirit Like No Other

*Don't think of him as gone away
his journey's just begun,
life holds so many facets
this earth is only one.*

*Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears
in a place of warmth and comfort
where there are no days and years.*

*Think how he must be wishing
that we could know today
how nothing but our sadness
can really pass away.*

*And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched...
for nothing loved is ever lost
and he was loved so much.*
