Obituary

Antawan Washington departed this life on October 22, 2016 peacefully in his sleep at his home in Rochester, New York.

Antawan Washington was born February 20, 1970, in Newark, New Jersey. In 1976, the family moved to Hillside, NJ, where he attended the Hillside School District.

He became the proud father of three daughters Octavia, Taniyah, Ashley and one son Antawan, and a proud grandfather of one granddaughter, Laila, who all loved him dearly.

Antawan was extremely neat in his appearance, he loved looking good, Mr. GQ himself. He also had the ability to speak easily with confidence in a way that people enjoyed listening to him.

Antawan relocated to Rochester, NY in 2013 where he was employed by AC Packaging as a Laborer and Carpenter as well as the Doubletree Hotel as a Maintenance Engineer.

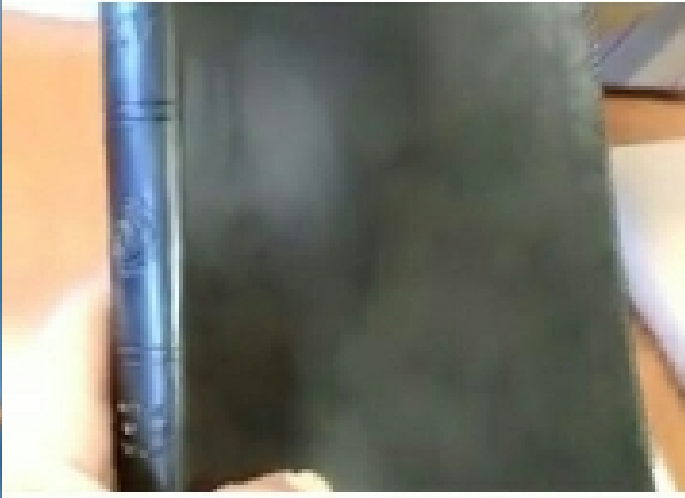

Antawan loved the Lord, so much so while in Rochester, NY he rededicated his life to the Lord and became an active member of Saint Luke Tabernacle Community Church, Rochester, NY.

Antawan Washington is survived by his father and mother, Carey and Rosetta Washington; three daughters Octavia, Taniyah, Ashley and one son Antawan, one sister, Monica Batts (Washington) and one brother-in-law Ronald Batts. Antawan was preceded in death by his oldest brother, Desmond Washington and his twin sister Antawanette Washington.

Antawan also leaves to cherish his memory: David Fuller, two nieces, Iyana and Londyn, three nephews, Ibn, Isaiah, Legend and aunts, uncles, cousins, and a host of family and friends.

A Gift From Mom

Just look at this wonderful gift I received in the mail today from my Mom. I felt just like a child getting a brand new bike for the very first time, and I was thinking to myself, I'm going to ride this bike until the wheels fall off, but the hardware used to build this bike is not man made. The frame is made with the armor of God, and the nuts & bolts with faith and praise. So I will stay on this bike and not fall off and ride it until the end of my age. Thank you Ma I love you.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece if so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, we Thank You, Whatever the part.
