Obituary

On June 4, 1994 a beautiful baby boy name Tyrell Marion Govan was born to the parents of Posie Green and Marion Govan in New York City. From the time Tyrell started walking, he was full of life and energy and always was on the move.

Tyrell attended P.S. 30, KAPPA, and finished his education at Manhattan High School.

Born the youngest, Tyrell was spoiled with love by his parents and by each sibling in their own different ways. There was always a battle of who would change his diaper or feed him. He was the center of his entire family's world.

Tyrell was always surrounded by a host of family members and many friends who loved him for his big heart and shy smile. He can always be seen playing basketball and dancing. He had a love for rap music. Tyrell was always attached mainly to his mother's arm, hanging with his dad at family picnics, going to the movies with his brothers and definitely with his big sister. His aunts, uncles, and cousins loved his spirit and soul. Tyrell was an awesome uncle to his niece and nephews.

Tyrell attended ARCHES, as well as other organizations that was for the empowerment of youth. He received numerous certificates for completing each one. You could always hear him telling his mom, "I'll be right back mom, I'm going to my program."

Tyrell is survived by: his mother, Posie Green; father, Marion Govan; his siblings, Anthony Green, Chanel Green, Curtis Graham and Jason Graham; his niece, Chloe Green; two nephews, Anfernee Green and Laughton Mitcham, Jr.; and a host of loving aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

We love you Tyrell, and you will forever be in our hearts.

Asleep

*I've closed my eyes and fallen asleep,
So there's no reason for you to weep;
This is a debt we all must pay,
You will see me again someday.
I've endured pain and sometimes sorrow,
Now I don't have to worry about tomorrow.
But life for you must go on,
You must not worry because I'm gone.
You stood beside me all the way,
When I was down, you knew what to say ...
You always told me, "get some rest,"
Let me sleep now, I've done my best.
So please let me rest in peace,
The tears you're shedding soon will cease.
You'll soon realize this was meant to be,
I thank God because He came for me.*
