Reflections of Life

Lloyd Desmond Freso was born to Ray Freso and Christina Elizabeth Freso on September 18, 1933. He was the third child of seven children, the only one left is the baby, Tessis Roberts.

Lloyd attended Roman Catholic Boys School in New Amsterdam Berbice, Guyana. After school he volunteered his time at a tailor shop and there is where he found his passion to become a tailor.

Lloyd moved to Georgetown, Guyana in 1944 to pursue his love of tailoring. He soon became a manager and head tailor for William Fogarty one of the largest men's outfit store in Guyana.

In February 1969, Lloyd moved to New York City for better opportunities. After graduating from New York School of Mechanical Dentistry in 1972, he went back to his love of tailoring by managing an establishment in Harlem for a number of years.

Lloyd Desmond Freso opened his own business by the name of L De. Freso Tailoring. When he moved to New Jersey in 1974 he was a busy man. He was a designer for Gray Bell, he was a member of a Lodge, he ran a Domino Club and had his business.

Lloyd lived a long and happy life in which he was loved greatly.

He was preceded in death by his wife Ruby Freso of 40 years.

Lloyd departed this life on Thursday, January 26, 2017.

Lloyd leaves to cherish precious memories his daughters: Sandra Joseph, Donna Freso and Lloydada Freso Heilig, his grandson: Remington Freso Heilig, his great grandson: Meeshak Freso and a host of uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, god child, fraternal brothers, neighbors and friends.

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not there to see if the sun should rise and find your eyes, all filled with tears for me. I wish so much you wouldn't cry, the way you did today, while thinking of the many things, we didn't get to say. I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too. But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand that an angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand and said, "my place was ready, in heaven far above and that I'd have to leave behind, all those I dearly love." But when I walked through heaven's gates, I felt so much at home. When God looked down and smiled at me, from His great golden throne. He said "This is eternity, and all I've promised you." Today for life on earth is past, but here it starts anew. I promise no tomorrow, for today will always last. And since each day's the same way, there's no longing for the past. So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart. For every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.
