Obituary

Ieasha Monique Scott was born March 13, 1976 to Daphne Scott and James Harris in Newark, NJ. “Monique” departed this life on February 14, 2017 at home in Orange, NJ.

Monique received her education in the Newark and Irvington Public School system, she also completed her EMT training in Bergen County.

On August 30, 2002, Monique entered into holy matrimony with Thomas Caraway. Subsequently they were divorced in 2011, but remained friends. Monique was gainfully employed for many years with Parivan, Caring, Bell Medical and Virgo Transportation Companies. She eventually embarked on a career with Cerebral Palsy of North Jersey and Heart to Heart Agency where she embraced the daily care of her clients whom she had profound love for them and their families.

Monique also enjoyed bowling. She was an active member of the Metropolitan Bowling Senate. Every Tuesday and Saturday, you could always see her smiling face at Hy-Way Bowl.

Monique will always be remembered as a ray of sunshine. She always had a smile on her face even in the mist of a storm. She touched so many lives with her bubbly personality.

Monique leaves to cherish her memory: her daughter, Tanezha Scott, mother, Daphne Scott, father, James Harris, aunt, Ksenia Scott, uncle, Cecil Scott, cousins, Alteriek, Kaief, Gary Scott and Courtney Summerville, best friend, Aisha Hyman, goddaughters, Diamond Evans, Sydney Bridges, Trinity Sturdivant; and a host of other family and friends.

Monique was predeceased by her grandmother, Olivia Scott, grandfather, Herbert R. Scott, Sr. and uncle, Herbert R. Scott, Jr.

Your wings were ready but my heart was not.

Mommy

Finally Home

Although your work on earth is done your life in heaven has just begun. Your struggles here were hard and long but they're over now. You're finally home.

Aunt Senie

To Mommy from Daughter:

This still feels like a dream.
My heart has been heavy ever since you left me.
Trying to tell myself everything will be okay.
That you wouldn't want me to cry the whole day away.
How do I convince myself to move on with life knowing that you're gone
I gotta hold on. I gotta be strong
Even tho you being gone so soon just seems so wrong.

When you see Nana, hug her and kiss her and tell her oh how much I miss her.
And tell her to hold on to you tight until we meet again.

Tanezha

Lasting

Memories

It broke our hearts to lose you,
 you did not go alone.
 For part of us went with you,
 the day God called you home.
 You left us beautiful memories,
 your love is still our guide.
 And although we cannot see you,
 you are always by our side.
 Our family chain is broken,
 and nothing seems the same.
 But as God calls us one by one,
 the chain will link again.
