SONG 140

Life Without End—At Last! (John 3:16)

1. Can you see with your mind's eye, Peoples dwelling together?
Sorrow has passed. Peace at last! Life without tears or pain.

(CHORUS)

Sing out with joy of heart! You too can have a part.
Live for the day when you'll say, "Life without end, at last!"

2. In those days all will be young, All at peace with Jehovah.
Troubles are gone, from now on, No need to weep or fear.

(CHORUS)

Sing out with joy of heart! You too can have a part.
Live for the day when you'll say, "Life without end, at last!"

3. Paradise all will enjoy As we sing of God's glory.
Long as we live, we will give Honor and praise to God.

(CHORUS)

Sing out with joy of heart! You too can have a part.
Live for the day when you'll say, "Life without end, at last!"

OBITUARY

Warren D. Moore was born on June 21, 1954 to the late Robert and Alice Moore in Baltimore, Maryland. Warren had three siblings, a sister, Freda Mason and two brothers, Robert, Jr. and George Moore who preceded him in death.

Warren attended school in Baltimore, Maryland. He completed his nursing assistant certificate at the Jewish Home and Hospital. Warren furthered his education and became an X-ray Technician. Warren was employed by North Central Bronx Hospital for fifteen years where he retired.

On July 15, 2011, Warren married Angelin R. Hopkins. Warren was an avid fisherman and enjoyed going fishing with his wife. He loved watching movies and listening to oldies but goodies music especially the Temptations. Warren was known as a comedian and often made people laugh. Warren loved to cook and often invited people to dinner to show his cooking skills. He always assisted his elderly neighbors in the building by attending to their needs, by going to the store or just being a listening ear when they needed.

On April 13, 2017, Warren fell asleep in death. He is survived by: his wife of six years, Angelin R. Hopkins-Moore; his three sons, Warren, Jr., Maurice and Malcolm Moore; his sister, Freda Mason; four sisters-in-law, Brenda, Blanche, Renee (husband, Mark) and Christine; brothers-in-law, Emil and Troy; five step children; and a host of grandchildren, cousins, nieces, nephews, extended family and friends.

REVELATION 21:4

“And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The Moore Family wishes to thank all who shared their condolences and acts of kindness during this time of grief.
