Reflections of Life

Lloyd George Ingram was born in St. Ann, Jamaica West Indies on September 30, 1935, to the late Westmore and Florence Nelson Ingram.

Lloyd met Margarita Perkins in 1955 and was united in Holy Matrimony on September 19, 1959. This union produced six (6) beautiful children.

Lloyd was no stranger to hard work; he worked as an electrician at Kingston Public Hospital in Kingston, Jamaica West Indies for over 30 years. While living in Jamaica Lloyd played Cricket for (JPS) Jamaica Public Service.

In 1981, he migrated to the USA with his wife and children He worked at Barnett Hospital and Okonite Cable in Paterson, New Jersey for 19 years.

Lloyd had a strong sense of civic responsibility, his love for Cricket lead him to become a member of the Wanderers Sports Club, a group of cricketers. He held several positions as player, manager and as a mentor to players. After retiring he began umpiring for the New York Metropolitan League and the Garden State League.

Lloyd was baptized December 2009 at the Glory Gospel Church in Paterson, New Jersey. Toward the end, Lloyd's body grew frail and his sunset released him from this world.

Lloyd strongly believes that you should do everything while you can. He was the patriarch of the family and was a devoted husband; father, brother, a favorite uncle, friend and confidant to many. His kind spirit and loving nature characterized him. These memories of Lloyd will stay in our hearts forever.

Lloyd was a fighter but the Lord called him home at the age of 81, on Wednesday morning April 12, 2017, at St. Joseph's Regional Medical Center in Paterson, New Jersey.

He was preceded in death by his beloved wife Margarita Rachel Perkins Ingram. His son Errol, grandson Michael, and granddaughter Sheree, three brothers and six sisters.

Left to cherish his memory are his sons, Camel, George, Jr., and daughters, Marlin, Marcia, Gerald (Son-in-law) and Charmaine, Collin (son-in-law). Twelve Grandchildren, Deanna, Sophia, Staceyann, Tracyann, Melissa, Akelia, Nedra, Sada, Jackeisha, Teron, Natasha and Nikolai Twelve Grandchildren Children. Five sisters, Eula, Valda, Avis, Patricia and Paulette. Brothers, Michael and Lincoln and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

Don't Grieve for Me

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took His hand when I heard him call;
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play
Task left undone must stay that way
I found that place at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy,
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Ah yes, these things, I too, will miss.
Be not burdened with time of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full, I savored much\God friends, good times, a loved ones touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.
