Obituary

Edward Blake was born November 12, 1932 in Newark, New Jersey to the late Edward and Louise Blake.

He attended the Newark School System. He was a hard worker and was employed up until he retired. He was known in his neighborhood for helping people financially. He did not hesitate to help his family in any circumstances. He was always helping someone in need.

In his final days, he resided at Brookhaven Nursing Home in East Orange, New Jersey.

Edward was preceded in death by his wife, Delores Blake, his daughter, Rosalyn Blake and his siblings, Joan and Bernard Blake.

Edward is survived by his siblings, Mildred (East Orange), Bernice (Irvington) and Larry (Newark). He leaves to cherish his memories: his four grandchildren, Scott, Kim, Paul and Curtis; six great grandchildren and two great great grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and dear friends.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*
