Obituary

Dytrell Karon Jackson was born August 23, 1992 in Bronx, New York (Lincoln Hospital) to Madeline White and Ralph Jackson, Jr. He was the 4th child born to this union.

He attended J.H.S. 162 where he graduated and continued his education at Taft High School.

Dytrell was known to be very quiet around people other than close friends and family. All he would do is smile. He loved to be outside in the park doing back flips and getting others to join him in his gymnastics as jokes. Dytrell made sure he took care of his long pretty hair and was known to keep up with his wash and sets.

Dytrell loved his brothers and his sister. They were very close as he also was with his twin cousin Ashley. Dytrell was very strong minded and a take no bull type of guy, everyone knew that. He reserved his soft side for his beautiful daughters Dylia, and Savannah of whom he loved so much and was trying his best to do everything to give them a better life. Although life had been hard for Dytrell transitioning from a boy to a man, He was very strong and took it all one day at a time.

Though his life was cut short, we find comfort in knowing he is finally at peace with his big brother “Sheme”, who he missed and loved so much.

Dytrell leaves to cherish his loving memories his mother, Madeline Jackson; father, Ralph Jackson Jr.; grandmothers, Jhonny May Cane and Margaret Jackson; brother, Ralph Jackson III; sister-in-law, Tiffany; sister, Robin White; daughters, Dylia Jackson and her mother Julia Holmes, Savannah Jackson and her mother Thurraya Thomas; aunts, Cynthia White, Robin Russ and Constance White, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and dear friends.

His brother Demetris Jackson preceded him in death.
