Obituary

Lyan Ismael, age 47, of Bronx, passed away on Tuesday, February 24, 2026, at the Triboro Center for Rehab in Bronx, NY. She was born in Goodwill, Dominica to Anthea Anthony and Miguel Ismael on April 13, 1978.

She attended St. Joseph High School. Lyan dedicated over 13 years of her life working as a nanny in New York. She found joy in dancing and cherished congregating with her family and friends.

Lyan's spirit is beautifully reflected in the words of Galatians 5:22-23: "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. Against such things there is no law."

Her legacy lives on through her parents Anthea Anthony and Miguel Ismael, siblings Brent and Micha Ismael, Grandmother Exaline Paul, Aunts Reyna Anthony and Margarett Luke, Uncles Edwin and Desmon Anthony, and Sherman and Brian Ismael, cousins Beraline (Bolo) Anthony, Julia, Hazelia, Sherma, Joseline, Fabian, Dolcy family, Jules Family, Garnet, Moses, Mitcheline, Murium Lawrence, and many more family members and friends who were fortunate enough to have loved her and be loved by her. She is preceded in death by her Grandmother MaBebe. May Lyan's quiet strength, love, and kindness be remembered and paid forward, as she is now alongside her in leaving this world and returning to the Lord.

A Letter From Heaven

*When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not there to see;
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me.*

*I wish so much you wouldn't cry
The way you did today;
While thinking of the many things
We didn't get to say.*

*I know how much you love me
As much as I love you;
And each time that you think of me,
I know you'll miss me too.*

*When tomorrow starts without me,
Don't think we're far apart
For every time you think of me,
I'm right here in your heart.*

Acknowledgements

The family acknowledges with deep appreciation all acts of kindness extended to them during this bereavement hour. God bless you for all your thoughtfulness and concern.
