Obituary

Amber Monét Mcloyd was born in White Plains, New York to proud parents, Melvin Mcloyd and Regina Goode on December 17th, 1987. She was the first of three children from her father, and the first of three children from her mother.

Amber lived as a military child, adjusting to life in Virginia, North Carolina, and New York. She graduated from E.E. Smith High School in 2006, where she studied Liberal Arts. Shortly after graduating, she would decide to forgo college and pursue employment in child care, where her nurturing spirit would flourish.

A few years after finishing her education, she and the late Kelvin Edge would welcome their beautiful daughter, Kennedi Edge on July 9th, 2012.

Amber made it her mantra to help others to the best of her ability. She'd consistently put others before herself, finding happiness through her loved ones. Through her display of generosity, her selflessness will continue to shine through in those she cared for.

Amber transitioned from this life on March 20th, 2026, and joins her grandmother, Regina, her father Melvin, and her brother Melvin II.

She leaves behind her daughter, mother, grandmother, brother, sister, aunt, and a myriad of loved ones who will forever cherish her memory.

Amber will be missed dearly.

Lovingly submitted by The Family.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call*

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

*Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!

Acknowledgment

The family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation the many expressions of love, concern and kindness shown to their family during this hour of bereavement.

May God Bless and Keep You!
