Obituary

Anna L. Glover

On Wednesday, November 4, 1925, Royal and Lucy Hicks Boone welcomed their second daughter, Anna Laura into the world two months ahead of schedule while living in Pittsburgh, PA. Whooping cough threatened the preemie's young life, imposing paralysis on her legs. But God stepped in. Paralysis reversed. Her mother declared to her mother, we'll walk to North Carolina! Resilience became a pronounced stand in Anna's life.

Reared in Dover, NJ Anna Laura was baptized on July 5, 1936 at Union Baptist Church in Morristown, NJ after a revival encounter with God as she sat on the mourner's bench. After graduating Dover High School as Valedictorian, she matriculated at Shaw University in Raleigh, NC. Active in Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., Dramatics Club, Poetry Club, she graduated Salutatorian with a Bachelor's degree in French and a minor in English. She taught at Berry O'Kelly School in Method, NC for a year.

On September 5, 1948, Anna Laura married Sterling Edward Glover, a truck driving aspiring minister and lived in Newark, NJ. From this union Clarence Edward, Maurice Preston and Bernadette Annelle Glover were born. In 1951, they relocated to Scotch Plains, NJ where St. John's Baptist Church and community became a formative relational hub. Affable, loyal, creative and gracious, she was the founding director of the St. John's Day Care, Dramatics Club, Sunday School, Progressive Ushers, and Scholarship Committee participant. Mrs. Glover was a prayer meeting and Bible study regular. "Oh The Blood" and "Do Lord Remember Me" were two of her favorite songs. Gifted with poetry, she could rhyme at any time, ever appreciating a play on words.

After 26 years in the PSE & G payroll department and 19 years as an Avon representative with President's Club distinction, she retired to enjoy gardening, friends and whatever- on her terms. Mrs. Glover's later years were marked with a playful engagement with others (Anna Banana Plays the Piana in a Cabana). A mega resolve of faith and desire for life. Saturday, April 18, 2026, Anna Banana moved from faith to sight. Clarence, Maurice, Bernadette, Gregg and family remain grateful for her and the surrounding circle of Love and care she enjoyed.

To God Be The Glory For A Life Well Lived!

IN THE EVENING

*In the evening when my work is done
And the sands of life are almost run
My tasks, my trials will all be o'er
And my ship shall anchor at the Eternal Shore*

*In the evening when my work is done
And the race on earth, the victory I've won
The burden of life, no longer I'll bear
For my yoke will be lifted when I enter there.*

*In the evening when my work is done
For me eternal joy will have just begun
For in that city of God so bright and fair Trouble, heartache and misery never there*

*In the evening when my work is done
I shall see God's only begotten Son
Who died for the forgiveness of all our sins
That I might live eternally with Him*

Acknowledgements

*The family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation the many expressions of love, concern and kindness shown to their family during this hour of bereavement.
May God Bless and Keep You!*
