Obituary

Jujuan Sharrod Kearney, 51, of Plainfield, New Jersey, passed away on April 22, 2026.

Born on February 15, 1975, in Plainfield, New Jersey, Jujuan was raised in the city he always considered home. Throughout his life, he spent 10 years living in Emporia, Virginia, followed by time in Allentown, Pennsylvania, before eventually returning to Plainfield, where he remained until his passing.

He was the beloved son of Barbara Kearney-Boyd and Emmett Crane, and the loving brother of Raymond Kearney.

Jujuan was the devoted spouse of Jennifer Colon and a proud father to seven children: Shanice Stanley, Juwana Adams, Justin Adams, Richard Owen, Seh'vyn Kearney, Tanya Alfaro, and Jennifer Alfaro. His family meant everything to him, and he took great pride in the love and bond they shared.

He was also a loving grandfather to four grandchildren: Javon Stanley, Khristian Stanley (Jr.), Kyree Rawlins, and Rylee Rawlins, with his fifth grandchild, Jyaire Adams, expected to arrive soon. The joy of becoming a grandfather brought him great happiness, and his love for his growing family was evident to everyone around him.

His last known occupation was as a forklift driver, where he worked hard to provide for those he loved. He was known for his strong presence, his loyalty to family, and his pride in the things he cared about most.

Jujuan had a special love for his Cadillac—when he was driving it, everyone knew it was him. It was more than just a car; it was part of his personality and something that brought him joy.

A man of Muslim faith, Jujuan carried his beliefs with him throughout his life. He will be remembered for his love of family, his unmistakable presence, and the lasting memories he leaves behind for all who knew and loved him.

GOD'S GARDEN

*God looked around His garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth,
And saw your tired face.
He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering
He knew you were in pain.
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough,
And the hills were hard to climb,
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered, "Peace be Thine."
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.*

Acknowledgements

*The family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation
the many expressions of love, concern and kindness shown to their family during this hour of bereavement.
May God Bless and Keep You!*
