Quadria M. Dunn-Lyde, affectionately known as “Qua” by family members and friends, was born December 27, 1980, in Paterson, New Jersey. She was the daughter of Gordon Dunn and Cassandra Lyde.

Quadria was educated in the Paterson Public School System, where she attended school #28 and John F. Kennedy High School. She later pursued a career in the health profession, dedicating herself to caring for others where her compassion and nurturing spirit touched many.

Quadria had a vibrant and joyful spirit. She loved to have fun, laugh, and enjoy life. She cherished time spent with her family and found happiness in being surrounded by those she loved most. Her sweet spirit welcomed everyone with warmth, good energy, and comfort.

Mommy

Mommy we love you and we will miss you so much
Our lives will be different missing your special touch
We thank you for being a wonderful mother
You were beautiful yes indeed
You were always there for us during our times in need You nurtured our hearts and left an impression that will never go away
We know that God called you home even though we wanted you to stay
As the tears began to fall and run down our face
We find comfort in knowing that that our mother is in a better place
So, mommy we love you
And we wish you were here
But our time spent apart is temporary Because we will see you again in Heaven when we get there.
