Obituary

Alan Johnson, who was born on April 1, 1951, in Newark, New Jersey, and passed away on May 6, 2026, in Hamilton, NJ. He was preceded in death by his parents, Deborah and Arthur Johnson, as well as by his brothers, Arthur Johnson Jr. and Ronald Johnson, and his sister, Evelyn Morris.

Alan is survived by his children, Dawn Breeland (Calvin) Shawn Holston (Bevan), April Hart (Bobby) Norman Johnson (Estelle). He also leaves behind 13 grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren. He is also survived by his five siblings, Thomas Brown (Maria) Saladin Abd Al-Karim, Gloria Jones, Carolyn Johnson, and Braneva Johnson.

Alan was a retired contractor for the City of Plainfield, where he contributed his time, skill, and dedication to the work of his community. In his professional life, he was known for his reliability and steady commitment, qualities that earned the respect of those who worked alongside him.

Those who knew Alan will remember a man who valued family, carried himself with quiet resilience, and left an impression that will not be forgotten. His life, though far too short, was marked by meaningful connections and the love of a large and devoted family. He will be remembered not only for the roles he held, but also for the kindness, strength, and dignity he brought to those around him.

Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when day is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave behind,
When the day is done.
-Helen Lowrie Marshall
