Obituary

Marlene Althea Thomas was born in Mandeville Regional Hospital in Manchester parish Jamaica on Friday the 15th of September 1967. She was born at approximately 9 pm to parents David and Vernice Thomas. As a child, Marlene was quite diminutive in stature and that's how she earned the Nickname "Ants". She was the youngest sibling of three sisters Dorette, Norma and Marian, and five brothers Verrol, Danny, Trevor, Jay and Hubert.

Marlene's dad was living in England during her early childhood and in September 1973 her mom migrated to join him, leaving Marlene in the care of her older sister Norma. Marlene was a very gifted student at her elementary school, the Mico Practising School.

On July 15th 1977, Marlene migrated to England to join her parents. She attended the Brockwell Junior School followed by the Strand School where she completed her secondary education, prior to her matriculation into University.

Marlene was drawn to the field of accounting and finance. This was a natural fit for her personality. Anyone who knew Marlene knows that things had to be done properly and done right. She went on to work for Omnicom with a career that spanned over 30 years. This eventually resulted in her transferring to New York in the early 2000's where she resided until her passing.

Marlene loved to travel and has been to every continent except Antarctica. Prior to her most recent battle with cancer, Antarctica was next on her list. After a very long and determined fight with cancer, Marlene passed away on Friday June 12th. Throughout her challenges, Marlene never lost her infectious smile and British sense of humor that she is so well known for.

To cherish Marlene's illustrious memory, is her siblings Dorette, Norma, Marian, Danny, Trevor, Jay, and Hubert, her nieces and nephews, and her cousins, all her former coworkers and friends. May her beautiful smile and spirit live on in eternity.

2nd Timothy 4: 6-8

*For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand.
I have fought a good fight,
I have finished my course,
I have kept the faith:
Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness,
which the Lord, the righteous judge,
shall give me at that day:
and not to me only,
but unto all them also that love his appearing.*

Acknowledgements

The family acknowledges with deep appreciation all acts of kindness extended to them during this bereavement hour. God bless you for all your thoughtfulness and concern.
