

TO THOSE I LOVE

To those I love and those that love me,
When I am gone, release me, let me go
I have so many things to see and do
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears
Be happy that we had so many years.
I gave you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness
I thank you for the love you each have shown
But now it's time I travel alone
So grieve for a while for me if you must
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part
So bless the memories within your heart
I won't be far away, for life goes on
So if you need me, call and I will come
Though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near
And if you listen with your heart you'll hear
All my love around you so soft and clear
And then, when you must come this way alone
I'll greet you with a smile and say, "Welcome Home."

OBITUARY

Glenn L. Curry went home to be with the Lord, on Tuesday June 23, 2026, at the Spring Grove Rehabilitation & HealthCare Center in New Providence, NJ.

Glenn was born on August 30, 1948 in Jersey City, New Jersey. He was the oldest of five children from a combined family of loving parents

Glenn attended Bayonne High School. Upon graduation he was employed as a salesman at a local shoe store on Martin Luther King Drive in Jersey City. After several years, Glenn had mastered the art of persuasion and salesmanship. He had many lively stories to tell about his time at the store! Glenn was interested in pursuing his dreams and new opportunities and decided to relocate south to Gaithersburg, Maryland. Glenn’s love for dogs, led him to work for the Montgomery County Animal Shelter. He also enjoyed the company of children and worked as a playground aide at the Brown Station Elementary School. Glenn was gifted with his hands. He used his skills to build computers. And later worked at Sears in the Rockville, Maryland automotive shop. Throughout all his employment, and among his family and many friends, Glenn was known for his warm, friendly, and calm personality. He also had patience and a compassionate heart which made him ideal for his last employment as a Greeter at Walmart in Germantown, Maryland.

Glenn absolutely, loved family cook outs. He had some amazing SKILLS, especially when cooking BBQ Chicken! He also threw down—and his other specialties included, corn fritters, stir fry dishes and one of his own favorites to eat was fresh fried fish. Even in his later years in convalescence, a fish dinner from Crockett’s in Montclair, New Jersey, made him very happy! He enjoyed nature, the great outdoors, horseback and bike riding and traveling.

Preceding him in death: are his beloved parents Whitney and Barbara Gist, brothers Curtis Curry, Whitney Gist Jr, Frederick Gist. And son, Bilal Curry and best friend Michael Lea.

He leaves to cherish his memory his sister, Diana Gist: children; Janeen Curry, Danielle Yolanda Curry, Stacey Natasha Curry, Lawrence Neil Adamson. Grandchildren; Breanna Martin Abrams, De’andre Abrams, Andrea Abrams, Justice Austin Troy, Jake Austin Troy, Carleigh Cook, Carsyn Cook. He is also survived by a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, relatives, and friends.

Glenn will be greatly missed and will forever remain in the hearts of his family and friends.
