OBITUARY

Ronn was born on snowy December Day in 1964 to Estelle and Herbert Anderson in Harlem. He was the youngest of 5 children, consisting of 4 boys and 1 girl.

The family later moved to the Bronx where he attended Taft High School as a teenager. One of his lifelong friends, Bernard Johnson introduced Ronn to his soulmate and the mother of his child, Andrea Brooks. Together they brought into this world Tyrell Anderson. Careerwise, Ronn retired from Bronx Lebanon Hospital as a Medical Assistant.

Ronn is survived by his Son Tyrell Anderson, his Sister, Rachael Smith, his Brother Raymond Anderson, his Sister-in-Law, Tamara Anderson, and a whole host of nieces, nephews, and cousins.

He will be joining in Heaven his mother, Estelle Doyle, his Stepfather Isadore Doyle, his soulmate, Andrea Brooks, his Granddog, Justice, his Brothers Richard Hill and Rodney Andrews, and his Brother-in-Law Kenneth Smith.

On Webster Avenue, especially the 18th floor of 1348, there are a plethora of friends that has always been considered family. Ronn will always be in their heart and memories. His big smile and infectious laugh could be seen and heard from miles away. And you could smell his cologne for days on end.

We will all keep his memory alive.

I'M FREE

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.
