Obituary

Christine Brunson was born on January 17, 1948, in Harlem, New York, at Metropolitan Hospital. She was the daughter of James and Mary Lee Brunson. She departed this life on July 9, 2026, at Harlem Center.

Christine attended Benjamin Franklin High School and graduated in 1968. Even though Christine was born with Cerebral Palsy, she was a very strong and independent person. Christine could be very outspoken in her opinions sometimes, but tried to be there for you when you needed her.

Christine spent most of her time reading. She loved to read books by Afro-American authors. She enjoyed cooking when she could and watching TV. Christine liked fashion and expressed herself through her many wigs. She also enjoyed listening to her music and had a big collection of CDs, DVDs, cassettes, and books at home. She loved to go to the theater to see the latest movie that was out.

Christine just loved life and people. She will be greatly missed.

She leaves to mourn her devoted cousin, Debbie Wise, and a host of cousins, relatives, and loving friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
