

Psalm 23

The Lord in my shepherd, I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures.

He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul.

He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil. For thou art with me. Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of my enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the house of he Lord forever. AMEN

Obituary

Known, lovingly, as "Cookie," Clarita Morales was a constant fixture on the plaza. She could be seen hanging out with her friends while keeping a watchful eye on her grandchildren. Life for Cookie was not always easy, but for those she loved, she did the absolute best she could. Now, those whom she loved most in life are left to cherish her memory.

She was preceded in death by her mother Clarice Morales, her uncle Ronald Daniels who were raised together as brother and sister by her Grandmother Clarita Smith.

Cookie leaves behind her sons Antoine, Froncelle, and Darrëll, her only daughter Danielle, and her daughters-in-law Paula (Antoine) and Jessica (Darrëll) and Benta (Froncelle). Cookie was blessed with many grandchildren, both by blood and by marriage. Daniel a.k.a DThang, Cordell, Jaidyn, Timothy, Elliot, Major, Mason, India, and Khadijah, Chane and Sade and finally great-grandchildren, Aliemm and Assiem (India) and Jaryd and Grayson (Chane). Finally, her life long companion who's voice ushered her onto Glory, Shon.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that once we shared
Miss me, but let me go.*

*For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at all the things we used to do
Miss me, but let me go*
