Life Reflections

Ruby Kate Connor was born on January 26, 1939 in Montgomery, Alabama, daughter of Jessie Mae Ellis and William Thorne. She was educated in the Montgomery Public School System.

Ruby was joined in holy matrimony to Julius Connor and this union was blessed with five children, Yvonne, Mary, Donald, Ruby Bell and Samantha. Ruby and Julius would move to Jersey City, New Jersey where they would raise their family.

Ruby was a proud homemaker. Her priority was taking loving care of her family. She enjoyed knitting while watching her favorite soap operas on the television.

Ruby Kate Connor departed this life on Tuesday, July 21, 2026 at John F. Kennedy Medical Center in Edison, New Jersey at the age of 87. She was predeceased by her husband, Julius Connor and a son, Donald Connor.

She leaves to cherish fond memories, four daughters, Yvonne Connor, Mary Nwokolo, Ruby Bell Connor and Samantha Connor; three granddaughters, Raquel Connor Seenath, Gabriel Connor Findlay and Justin Connor; two grandsons, Chinedu Nwokolo and Ikechukwu Nwokolo; a great grandson, Elijah Virgil; a son-in-law, Felix Nwokolo and a host of other relatives and friends.

Lovingly and Sorrowfully Submitted,
The Family

"Where Our Sympathy Expresses Itself Through Sincere Service"

Pallbearers
Family and Friends of
Ruby Kate Connor

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.
