Obituary

Winnifred Joan Cadiz was born on November 21, 1963, in Port of Spain, Trinidad & Tobago, where she developed the strength, compassion, and resilience that would guide her throughout her life.

She was a devoted daughter, loving mother, proud grandmother, cherished sister, aunt, niece, cousin, and loyal friend. Her greatest joy was caring for her family and creating a home filled with warmth, laughter, delicious meals, and unconditional love. Whether through a home-cooked meal, words of encouragement, or simply opening her heart to others, Winnifred made everyone feel welcome and deeply loved.

Her faith in God was the foundation of her life. She trusted Him wholeheartedly, finding peace in His promises and strength for each new day. Through her kindness, generosity, compassion, and unwavering love, she reflected God's grace to everyone blessed to know her.

She was predeceased by her beloved son, Jameel Sky Gibbs; her mother, Auldris Verona Winchester; her father, James Christopher Cadiz; her brother, Joseph Cadiz; and several beloved aunts and uncles.

She leaves to cherish her memory her loving children, Alexandria and Kristian; her cherished grandchildren, Julian, Sephora, and Kale; her beloved brothers, Dexter (Annmarie) and Jude; her dear niece, Candace; many beloved nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family members, treasured friends, her cherished Pinnacle family, and her church family, all of whom were blessed by her kindness, warmth, and unwavering love.

Though our hearts are heavy with sorrow, we find comfort in God's everlasting promises. We hold fast to the blessed hope of the resurrection and Christ's soon return, looking forward to that glorious day when we shall be reunited with our beloved Winnifred, never to part again. Until then, her legacy of faith, love, kindness, and devotion will continue to inspire all who knew and loved her.

This Is Not Goodbye

*I did not want to leave you
It was just my time to go
I know your heart is breaking
So, I need to let you know
That although you can no longer see me
I'll be forever by your side
I promise time will numb the pain
And help dry the tears you've cried
You can reach me in your memories
Just think of me, / will be there
In your dreams, we can visit yesteryear
Where we didn't have a care
Please carry on and live your life
I beg of you to try
Just know we'll meet again one day
As this is not goodbye*
