Obituary

Our beloved mother, Pamela Rowena Sellers, passed away on June 30, 2026, surrounded by her family. She was born on September 18, 1962, in the Bronx, New York, to the late Laura Betty Sellers and Samuel Dixon. Pamela found great comfort in her mother, who was kind, loving, and nurturing, inspiring her to become the wonderful mother she was.

Pamela was an excellent student who enjoyed school. She was an exceptional reader and a stickler for grammar. After graduating from high school, she attended Buffalo State University. She worked as a bus driver for New York City Transit and devoted the rest of her time to being a stay-at-home mother. Pamela cherished the time she spent living abroad in Barbados with her husband, with whom she shared 40 memorable years. She often spoke of her love for the crystal-clear blue waters and beautiful beaches.

Pamela was a woman of great strength and perseverance. She loved life, family gatherings, holidays, traveling, and laughing. She had a unique voice and laugh so much so that you always knew when she was in the room. She truly was the life of the party! Pamela had a wonderful sense of style and especially enjoyed shopping with her youngest daughter.

Pamela devoted her life to her family and her faith, raising her three children with love and patience. She was an active member of FCC, where she faithfully served on both the Food Pantry and Hospitality teams. She treasured spending quality time with her children, reading books, playing games, painting, and watching TV, especially Seinfeld and 90 Day Fiancé.

Pamela will be remembered for her strength, devotion, perseverance, selflessness, and sense of humor. She is survived by her children, Khaliyq, Brianna, and Tiarra; her beloved grandson, Amir; her sister-cousin, Arlene; and a host of loving cousins.

Her life was a beautiful testament to unconditional love, unwavering faith, and quiet strength. Although she will be profoundly missed, the memories she created and the love she shared will remain in our hearts forever.

Do Not Stand At My Grave And Weep

MARY ELIZABETH FRYE

*Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there; I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow,
I am the sun on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there; I did not die.*

Acknowledgments

The family would like to express their deep appreciation and sincere thanks for all acts of kindness shown to them during their time of bereavement.
