Obituary

Ivan W. McBean
February 25, 1943

Ivan Wesley McBean (Dada, Mackie, Glimpse) as he was affectionately called was born on February 25, 1943 to parents Indiana Ormsby and Wesley McBean.

He departed this life on July 30, 2026 in the Bronx, New York where was living for about 33 years.

At an early age growing up in Jamaica, he went to live with his sister Joyce McBean in Clarendon. From there they to St Mary where they both live with another sister Olga. As a young man he worked at the Issac Barrant Hospital as a Porter. He then worked Jones Sugar Estate for another period of time. After leaving those jobs he went into farming for a living prior to emigrating to the U.S.A. He worked at the Amsterdam Nursing Home as a Laundry Attendant for about three to four years then at the New York Presbyterian Hospital for another 32 years where he retired in 2014.

He is survived by seven of his nine beloved children, Sonia, Dannette, Valoris, Winston, Andrew, Paulette and Georgiana; thirty grandchildren, fourteen great grandchildren; two sisters Joyce McBean and Icilda Reid and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins in Jamaica, Canada and the United States.

He was preceded in death by nine siblings, Alice Jones, Florence Mendez, Clara McBean, Joslin McBean, Wilshem McBean, James McBean, Olga Byfield and Dellis Anderson.

We give thanks to God for blessing us with our dad for the past 83 years. Sleep on Mackie in perpetual peace.

Farewell

Farewell my family, don't weep for I'm at peace now, just asleep. Farewell my family, I'm not alone, the Mighty Maker has led me safely home. Just think back over the many years, how the family seemed so strong, holding back the tears. Yet, God somehow always made a way, thanking Him every night and day. Be good my family, always love each other. Be strong my family, strong in heart, the blood ties, no one can ever part. If at some time I made a mistake, as you live, many will you make. Farewell my family, I've been called away. Walk with God, trust in His word, for He is always by your side.

Acknowledgments

The family would like to express their deep appreciation and sincere thanks for all acts of kindness shown to them during their time of bereavement.
