In Loving Memory of Our Mommy

Today, we stand before you with hearts full of love, gratitude, and sadness as we celebrate the life of our beloved mother—our Mommy, or, as Cuz lovingly called her, “My Partner.”

Mommy was more than just our mother. She was our safe place.

To our Mommy, we want you to know that we saw your sacrifices. We saw the strength it took to raise us, to keep going when life was difficult, and to put your children before yourself. You gave us lessons that we will carry for the rest of our lives. You taught us how to love, how to forgive, how to be strong, and, most importantly, how to keep our faith even during difficult times.

Mommy, you had a special relationship with each of us. To your sons, you were their first love, their biggest supporter, and the woman who taught them what strength and unconditional love looked like. To your only daughter, you were not only a mother but also a role model, a confidant, and a lifelong friend. You understood each of us in your own special way, and you knew how to make us feel loved, even without saying a word. The bond we shared with you can never be replaced.

You were also a loving grandmother and great-grandmother. Your grandchildren and great-grandchildren brought you a special kind of joy, and your love for them was evident in every smile, every story, every hug, and every moment you shared. You cherished watching them grow, and they will always carry the memory of your love in their hearts. To them, you were not only their grandmother and great-grandmother, but also a source of comfort, wisdom, laughter, and unconditional love.

Remembering a Life of Love and Grace of Mommy!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

In Loving Memory

*In tears we saw you sinking
And watched you fade away.
Our hearts were almost breaking,
We wanted you to stay.
But when we saw you sleeping
So peacefully and free from pain,
How could we wish you back
To suffer that again?
It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you didn't go alone.
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.*
