Obituary

Walter “Pete” Williams Sr., beloved husband, father, grandfather, brother, uncle, friend, and colleague, was born on July 18, 1959, in Prospect, Virginia, to Ethel Dixon.

From an early age, Walter grew into a strong and dependable man who valued family, hard work, and taking care of the people he loved. He was 16 years old when was introduced into the sanitation industry. He learned the way from his dad Albert Dixon. The first company to give him a chance was Ipolito. Eventually Ippolito was sold to Waste Management, where Walter continued his career in sanitation. From there Walter dedicated 47 years to Waste Management, where he took great pride in his work and was a proud member of Local 945 Union. He loved his job and the people he worked with. His commitment to his career was a testament to his incredible work ethic and dedication. In 2023 Walter retired from Waste Management and began to enjoy the comforts of life with family.

Family was at the center of Walter's life. He was a devoted husband to his wife of 34 years, Delores Williams, whom he considered his best friend. Together, they built a life and raised their children. Walter's greatest accomplishments were marrying his best friend and being a father and provider for his family. He worked hard to make sure his loved ones were cared for and never hesitated to give whatever he could to someone in need. Walter was the kind of man who would give the shirt off his back to help another person.

Walter will also be remembered for his big heart, strength, generosity, and unwavering love for his family. He enjoyed bowling and was a true and passionate Dallas Cowboys fan. Whether at work, spending time with family, bowling, or cheering on the Cowboys, Walter's vibrant personality filled the room!

On Thursday, August 13, 2026, Walter peacefully departed this life in Hackensack, New Jersey. He was 67 years old.

He was preceded in death by his father, Albert Dixon; his daughter, Tasheen Jones; and his grandchildren, Zara and Ezra.

Walter leaves to cherish precious memories his loving wife, Delores Williams; his children, Walter Williams Jr. and Nyasia Williams; his mother, Ethel Dixon; his siblings, Louis Dixon, Johnny Williams, Sheila Dixon, Corleone Dixon-McWilliams (Richard McWilliams), Stacy Williams, Laura Jones, Otis Williams and James Dixon; and a host of nieces, nephews, extended family members, friends, and colleagues who were blessed to know him.

Walter's presence was a blessing to those around him, and his absence will be deeply felt. His legacy lives on through the family he loved the lives he touched, the years of hard work he dedicated to providing for those he cared about, and the memories that will remain in the hearts of everyone who knew him.

Walter "Pete" Williams Sr. will be deeply missed, forever loved, and never forgotten.
